AN OPEN LETTER

"We, a part of a great body of Americans, desiring to enjoy the Liberty that is granted to every law-abiding individual, do appeal to every American to whom this circular may come, trusting that he will take a manly stand on the side of Justice, and use his influence and voice against every measure that is brought forward, or may come up at any future time, that shall cause the smallest part of liberty to be taken from any of the American Citizens. That our peace is being disturbed and our liberty threatened is apparent by the unlawful measures that are being agitated by a part of our fellow-citizens, by which they hope to have us restricted in our rights as American Citizens to buy and enjoy real estate in this City wherever it is offered for sale. That this is an unlawful and unjust discrimination is admitted by every American who has the slightest knowledge of right and wrong, and is not blinded by a foolish prejudice.

"Then is it not a crime to legislate for or against any individual or body of individuals simply because of the color of the skin or texture of the hair? Colored men are Citizens by having measured up to every just requirement laid down by the Constitution, or required by laws of Nation, State or City.

"Colored men are not cowards, as can be proven by the records of the War and Navy Departments of our National Government, from 1776 to this day.

"And should our President at any time call for men to defend our Nation's honor, black men will respond to his call as they did to Lincoln and McKinley.

"Then why take away from Black men the right to buy and enjoy that Home that he is able to pay for and his white fellow-citizen is willing to sell to him or anyone else?

"One individual becomes superior to another only when he has a higher sense of right and justice, and the moral courage to put those virtues into practice.

"We therefore appeal to every man and woman who may read this that he rise above these petty things of life and work hard in hand with his fellow-man to make this, our country, the land of the 'brave and free,' not free for a 'group' of citizens, but free for all. While the world is at war, let us continue to show that this is, in truth, the land of Peace, Liberty and Justice, ever keeping in mind that if any man or woman lend his influence, either active or passive, in aid of any measure that will deprive any American citizen of his liberty and rights, he makes himself unworthy of the great name he bears and becomes 'Un-American.' The following Axioms are admitted by all men, and practiced by every right-thinking man:

"1. Social equality is a free gift from one individual to another; legislation cannot give it or take it away, hence let us not fear that.

"2. Real estate is not depreciated by the buyer, but by the seller's need of money.

"3. Real estate increases in value as a demand is made for it.

"4. The many homes that are for sale in St. Louis, in districts that are exclusively 'white,' shows that there is a decrease in value somewhere, and as no colored man is or has been a resident in such districts, the depreciation is caused by some things other than the presence of a Negro in the block. No demand, no value.

"5. Finally, as there is no moral, social, civic or intellectual need of segregation, any individual who works for it by word, or deed, becomes 'Un-American.'

We are Yours for Peace, Liberty and Justice,
"THE COLORED MEN'S IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE OF SOUTH ST. LOUIS,"

"Headquarters, 910 Iron St."

We reproduce this letter, from a group of men who are earnest and sincere, coming as it does at a time when the question of segregation is being agitated by the "Un-American."

The individual churches are like the cities and towns. The denominations are like the states. Both churches and denominations are proud of their independence, and maintain their self-government. Without parting with either of these rights they might easily come together in some form of federal union, which would enable them to converge and concentrate their separate influence into a unit of power for defense or attack.

Against such a federation, what evil could stand?

What It Costs
Not to Be a
ChristianBy REV. HOWARD W. POPE
Superintendent of Men, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago

TEXT—For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?—Mark 8:36

People sometimes refuse Christ because of the sacrifice involved. It costs too much, and they are not willing to pay the price. Yes, it does cost something to be a Christian, but it costs far more not to be a Christian. Let us see what it costs to live and die without Christ.

1. Not to be a Christian costs the sacrifice of peace. "Great peace have they which love the law," "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee." This is the portion of the Christian. He has peace with God, and the peace of God, and the God of peace besides. The Christian soul knows nothing of this, for "there is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked." He knows that he is disobeying God, and he is all the time fearful. "Who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

Besides, he is conscious of an unseen force which is continually working against him. "The way of the Lord is straight," we are told. Yes, God makes it hard to sin, but the sinner may weary of it, and turn his feet into the path of righteousness. "Behold I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and I will make a wall against thee."

As surely as all things work together for good to them that love God, so surely does God work against the sinner. The same love which prompts him to send blessings to the righteous, leads him to send hindrances and warnings to the sinner. The sinner calls it bad luck, but he suspects that it is something more, even the deliberate purpose of God.

2. Not to be a Christian costs the sacrifice of the highest joy. I do not say that the Christian man will have no joy. He may know the joy of health, and friendship, and domestic life; he may acquire money, and power, and fame. But there are nobler joys than those which he loses. He cannot know the joy of sin forgiven, or the comfort and companionship of the Holy Spirit, or the joy of becoming like Jesus Christ.

It is God's purpose that all his children shall be joyful—full of joy. "These things have I spoken unto you that your joy may be full." How different is the feeling of the Christian soul! A visitor who was calling on the great Bismarck expressed the hope that he might live many days, and this was Bismarck's reply: "There is only one happy day left for me. It is the one on which I shall not wake up again."

3. Not to be a Christian costs the sacrifice of the highest success in life. Everyone wishes to make the most of himself, but this is impossible unless he yields his life to Christ. God has a plan for every life, and this plan alone assures the highest success. Does not God know what is for the creature's good better than the creature himself? It is folly to think that one can live in God's world and achieve success, and yet disobey the laws of God.

Remember that money and popularity and power do not constitute success. One may have all these and yet be a consummate failure. The true object of life is to know God's will and do it, and the Christian soul misses that completely.

4. Not to be a Christian costs the loss of heaven. The penalty of having one's own way here, is to be assigned hereafter to a place where everyone has his own way, which is hell. That is what makes it hell. Heaven is a place where no one has his own way, but all delight to do God's will. That is what makes it heaven. The Christian soul has no hope of heaven, and even if he had, he could not enjoy it. Heaven would be hell to one who is not heavenly minded, to one who does not love Jesus, and who does not love sin.

The Christian soul must prepare to part forever from all his dear ones who have chosen Christ; his mother who taught him to pray, his faithful wife, his children whose little hands have long been beckoning to woo him home to heaven. When Dwight L. Moody died he looked up and said, "Is this death? If so, it is glorious. Earth is receding, heaven is opening. God is calling me." Instead of this welcome, the Christian soul will hear the sad words, "Depart from me."

Yes, it does cost something to be a Christian. It may cost you the sacrifice of some pleasure, some companions, some money, but not to be a Christian will cost you the loss of peace, joy, and real success. It will cost you the loss of your soul. It will cost you heaven.

"What shall it profit a man if he gains the world and lose his own soul?"

THE ST. LOUIS "PORO" COLLEGE FORCE

The above group represents the "PORO" College force of this city, with the exception of five, who were absent.

1. City Agents—Located in various parts of St. Louis and suburbs, and who are doing so much to spread the great work of "PORO" System, at their home and by appointment.

2. Matrons and Shipping Force—Women, who have the oversight of the building and grounds and men who handle enormous shipments of in-bound and out-bound stock.

3. The Office Force—Girls who handle the correspondence of more than three thousand representatives.

4. The Instructors and Mail Force—The young ladies in the Instructing and Operating Departments are so thorough in the scientific and sanitary training of scalp and hair treatment that by their assistance persons entering the College receive instructions in detail. Those who take care of the mailing are familiar with maps of the Parcel Post Guide directing the mail to all parts of this city and foreign countries.

This Institution has done, and is doing, a great work in this city and throughout the country. Looking back fifteen years, the date it was founded, there was not a school of its kind in existence; it is the center from which have sprung thousands of branches; it is the source from which so many hundreds of girls and women have forged their way to the heights so proudly attained; its principles, its system and its training are the cardinal points which have lent so much in making this school famous.

The "PORO" System is one which appeals to each individual, for every man and woman, boy and girl, is interested in the sanitary condition of his or her scalp and hair, and the most effective way by which this can be done is the scientific manner as is found alone in this system.

Such magnitude must do so at a sacrifice. She has given to her women the only systematic method of scalp and hair treatment, protecting them by a system of contracts and Diplomas, and giving to the numberless patrons the results they have spent so much time and money in search of.

She is accomplishing her one chief aim—to push her girls and women higher. In her unassuming manner, she is easily the one woman in her profession.

List of names of persons receiving Diplomas from "PORO" College in July.—Mrs. Lillie Jackson, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Janice Smith, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Anna E. Pennington, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Anna Thomas, Louisville, Ky.; Miss Bertie Campbell, Humboldt, Tenn.; Miss Blanche Hudson, Southland, Ark.; Miss Julia Gordon, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Louise Washburn, Columbia, Tenn., and Miss Viola Love, of Montgomery, Ala., are taking a Post Course.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
NOTES

Notwithstanding the very inclement weather and the absence of the pastor, Rev. F. F. Martyn, for the past three Sundays, morning and night, the congregations have been very acceptable, and quite appreciative of the sermons delivered by Rev. R. H. Cole. Next Sunday, July 11, will be the last one for Pastor Martyn's absence. The members and friends who have been attending the services are loud in their praises of the sermons preached by Rev. Cole. Rev. Cole announces as the themes for his closing sermons next Sunday morning service, "The Holy Spirit Ours, As It Was Christ's;" evening, "The Man of God Under the Juniper Tree." Rev. R. H. Cole will preach at the Tabernacle Baptist Church Friday night to a meeting of Christian people and friends interested in the home for the uplift of fallen girls and boys. The trustees of the First Baptist Church thank the members and friends for financial aid in liquidating many old debts against the church and ask the auxiliaries and friends to remember next Sunday is the final effort. Help us to clean up before the pastor returns.

QUINN CHAPEL NOTES

ST. PAUL NOTES

Despite the very heavy and almost steady downpour of rain last Sunday a large crowd was present to hear Bishop H. B. Parks deliver a most eloquent and inspiring sermon.

Next Sunday, July 11, Bishop Evans Tyree will speak. He is a great gospel preacher and it will be a treat to all who shall hear him. The Tri-Quarto Centennial Celebration has been well attended during the week.

New Automobile Tailoring And Cleaning Service

Chas. Q. Clark, formerly of Clark and Smith, has opened a tailoring shop at 3406 La Salle St. Mr. Clark has purchased a delivery automobile. He plans to give the people the quick and reliable service they demand and says, "Don't pack your clothes to a tailor, use your phone; he will call for your work and deliver it in double quick time." Mr. Clark has had 16 years' experience in the tailoring business, and is well qualified to give the best satisfaction. Besides high-grade tailoring, he is cleaning, pressing and repairing all garments, carpets and draperies. He also does a rental business in full dress suits. The change Mr. Clark has made enables him to give prices at a third less than formerly. It is no longer necessary to worry. No matter what part of the city you live in, if you wish tailoring, cleaning or pressing work, or your guests are in need of service, phone Grand 835M or Victor 3525X and have an automobile call for your work.
